Dear Ignacio.

How timely and encouraging your note was! I am currently undergoing a very painful period of time. My second husband has left me and our family and wants a divorce. I have no choice but to go along with this process and to begin a new life for myself. My first husband is now back into my life, helping again from the other side. What a powerful thing love is. It shows itself in so many ways.!

I am looking for a publisher for some works that I have completed in these last few years. One "came to me" through a friend who died and is her accounting of life after death. I have entitled it DYING TO LIVE! If you have any suggestions as to a publisher I would be interested.

I respect your study of the Urantia material. I consider it the Bible. I have it next to my bedside but have not given it thorough study. I promise myself now, to do so.

Thank you so much for your encouragement. I need it to get back into My Work. Guidance and direction is with me but my pain has been so great. I married a man who did not love himself nor know what love was. What a tragedy to those of us who loved him. The journey continues and I will move with it. I have your note on my mirror. Thank you.

Sincerely,
