Dear Mr. Darnaude,

We are in receipt of an undated and unsigned memorandum, ^{ON CONFLICTING REVELATIONS} on the reverse side of which we find a rubber stamp giving your name and address.

For that reason, and because the circumstances clearly set forth in the memorandum are those which are matters of concern for this Foundation I am addressing this letter to you, enclosing copy of a memorandum outlining the origin, nature and scope of our activities, along with a copy of our catalog and price list. Our publication of works by and about Emanuel Swedenborg, scientist, philosopher and theologian (1688-1772) address the chaotic ideological conditions now prevailing throughout the world, two hundred and fifty years ago, and his works have recently attracted the attention of an increasing group of scholars in many countries. We are currently negotiating with commercial publishers of Spanish language editions in response to a growing demand for these works from overseas modern readers of ethnic latin origin and write this letter under the impression that you would find this literature of deep interest to you.

At the present time we have only two titles in print in Spanish: Introduccion al pensamiento religioso de Swedenborg, by J. H. Spalding ($3.75 postpaid), and Luz en mi oscuridad, by Helen Keller ($2.75 postpaid) dealing with Swedenborg's contribution to the literature of the age of Enlightenment, which you might care to acquire.

With every good wish we remain,

Yours faithfully,

T. H. Spiers

Dear Mr. Rojas-Marcos,

It is sometime now since we received your paper with your card attached, and we apologise for the delay in getting back to you.

I have shown your paper to our Chairman, Mr. Richard Grave, who has suggested that we send you the enclosed booklet - The LINKAGE - drawing your attention to the last paragraph on p. 5. and we hope that you will find this helpful.

Once, long ago now, putting forward many of the questions you have posed, this very simple answer was given to me : -

"Suppose 5 Entities from a far distant Planet were dropped on to Earth in order to discover, what this planet was really like - One Being was dropped in Iceland, the land of snow, ice, Igloos seals and sleigh-dogs. Another in Central Africa, wild Bush, 'black' people, wild animals, elephants, lions, and often terrible bush fires. Another in China, a land of ancient Cultures, temples, and yellow-skinned people, a fourth in India, brown-skinned people, masses of them, great heat, many temples, vast rivers etc., etc., and finally one in Piccadilly Circus, London. White-skinned, people always in a hurry, rushing around their town in funny looking tins on wheels?!

In course of time these Beings are recalled to their own Planet to give an account of what this planet is like - each one, having to declare - in truth - what he had found.

Can we not see them almost coming to blows, each one insisting that his answer WAS the correct one and truth, and all the others - were talking non-sense!

Were they? Were they not each giving, within their limited experience, what they KNEW to be truth, and were not all these answers in fact - aspects of truth ? TRUTH to the finite mind being as many faceted as a diamond ?

So, maybe, according to the dullness or brightness of the fallible human mind are the interpretations of the Universal Truths that are channelled down to us and mis-represented or perverted en route because of the pre-conceived ideas persistent in the minds of the recipients? ABSOLUTE TRUTH must be completely INFALLIBLE - far beyond the capacity of the finite mind to envisage or to understand - hence, perhaps the Paradox of Truth and of Causation ?

Knowing as surely as we all must do, something of the wonders of CREATION of which we can only be the instruments and guardians - and NOT the producers of LIFE - can we not REJOICE in the knowledge of the SUPREME CREATOR and in gratitude serve Him NOW in the Sharing

Safe in the knowledge of the CONTINUITY OF LIFE (Call it Re-incarnation or whatever you will) and therefore sure, too, that once freed into Infinity we shall be wiser. Dear Friends in Spirit:

17 March 1980

Your statement of inquiry is the most eloquent expression I have yet seen, regarding the subject of: CONFUSION which has been spread near and far, in the past few years. I am thankful that you have put such questions into your own words and have sent them out (to many, I hope.)

45

Obviously I cannot attempt to fully answer your questions, nor do I claim any magic ability to call forth a Celestial Being to answer them for me. The only true and dependable Source of such information is-- so simplified that it often is rejected by those who seek a more phenomenal expression of the truth they wish to find.

In some, ego has been inflated by false "messengers" until the Channel has become disconnected from the REAL SOURCE OF TRUTH, The HOLY SPIRIT of CHRIST, the Comforter whom JESUS promised would come to all who would receive HIM, and would make all things known to us. If we do not depend upon Him, but seek instead the "familiar spirits" (as they are mentioned in the Holy Bible)-- we cannot expect to receive of His Truth.

The BIBLE still contains the most dependable information that is available upon the Earth today. Unfortunately it has been cast aside by the very ones who need it most if they are to find what they seek. Within its teachings, are those very things which we need to know amid today's turmoil and confusion. USING THAT AS A GUIDE, a measuring rod for any and all other information which we have to consider, the true information can be found, and further information for these times now coming forth, stands that test. If it does NOT stand that test, it should be rejected as misleading.

Jesus warned that false teachers and false prophets would come, and that already the antichrist teachers had gone out into the world and were spread abroad, and would deceive many. (WE are living in the time of the fullness of their efforts,) and only by HIS help and WITH HIS HELP, can we sift it all out and receive the truth through our own High Consciousness - not through the consciousness of any other human being. Things which may be truth for one person, may not apply as truth for another individual.

But the basic information should be harmoniously available to all who seek it. NO telepathic Channel is infallible and none should claim to be! Even some of the Channels whose intentions are of the very best, are not always immune to the interfering spirits who claim to be some great Being of Light in order to deceive many. The more "gifted" a psychic is, the more danger there is of this happening, especially if one's own consciousness is fully under control of the incoming entity. (I have NO talent for functioning in that way myself, nor do I wish to develop any.)

THIS, from my own High Consciousness, is the best and only answer which I can give you, for your question as to the mysterious reasons for the confused teachings that have been given--and are still being given by many. I hope it may help.

May God Bless and Guide you in all of your seeking.

WHY DOES REVEALED DATA FROM DIVERSE, RELIABLE SOURCES CONTRADICT EACH OTHER?

Contemporary revelation is obviously not monolithic but fortunately multifarious. (Many people are receiving messages from a source which may or may not be authentic)

In our Twentieth Century many are performing a selfless and precious work as selected channels which seem to be endowed with godly mediumship. They are conveying profuse, unedited information dealing with the structure of the Universe, God's Energetic Force Field (higher spheres of existence) Natural Laws, Love and Spiritual Aspects of Reality.

(There are levels of mediumship - in a trance or a waking state. Word for word or translated from symbols. (Read Alice Bailey's book, WHITE MAGIC, pp 177 - 185)

Transdimensional communications are, in general, of an incredibly deep interest from the scientific, philosophic and religious viewpoints.

(Science is beginning to be more aware^{of} the many dimensions which exist and are doing research and lab testing - finally recognizing the aspects of Kirlian Photography which was developed many years ago.)

Since the messages themselves show such an intelligent and ethical content, logically their hyperevolved (?) authors must be earnest, trustworthy entities who, of course, cannot deceive nor lie to participants. And they all, therefore, needless to say, should give us the same basic descriptions in regard to identical facts and concepts

* * * * *

One of many opinions possible is herewith submitted as a comment on the above.

As a student on the path of the higher learning, my feelings and awareness of what you are seeking is similar to all students on the path. Why the Diversity? That is one of the Laws of the Universe as taught by the Master D.K. in books written by Alice Bailey. There are over 20 volumes and I suggest you seek them out and begin to read. They are very intellectually presented and give the Laws of the Universe from the Multiverse down to the tiniest Atom - all in relationship with each other. However, the Unity in Diversity soon becomes apparent.

The Bible teaches - "In My House are Many Mansions." This relates to this Universal Law of Diversity. There are many people coming from different directions seeking to arrive back to their Father's House. It is like a Wheel. There is a hub in this wheel which is the essential Truth. However, when we leave our Father's House, to experience life in the material form, we choose differing paths to find our way back. This is where the Principle of Reincarnation comes in. Each lifetime is a day in school until we learn the lesson for which we incarnated. We may take many lifetimes to learn one lesson well (Ten Commandments). However, as we evolve up the ladder we may be perfecting one Truth and learning several more as a part of the whole. Just as you learn higher math, you use all the beginning processes to learn Calculus which is more abstract. You then begin to apply what you have learned as a totally conscious beingness.

We here deal with the multifarious and complex transdimensional communications received. Since we all are at (different) levels of evolvement, with differing experiences which have combined to create levels of consciousness, we have a level of awareness which we seek to convey to others - where we are right now. We know that we know more than many people, but the problem is - we get caught in the glamour of what we think or do know, without realizing that there is much more to learn. It is like an eighth grader being able to teach a third grader how to read. What is necessary is to continue to be aware that what we know is only a part of the whole.

At this moment I am feeling very insignificant as to what I know and do ask for guidance from my own Higher Self. In earnest, that is where the answer always lies. Allow the Soul or Higher Self to tell the Truth. What may be Truth today will change and there

A DISPENSATION OF BLESSING FROM SANAT KUMARA (THE ANCIENT OF DAYS)

"The coming Solar Eclipse (August 10 1980) will be a fiery Baptism for the Planet Earth. The majesty of the Sun, the influence of the Sun will be felt by every embodied soul. This will be the Energy of the King of the Heavens. This will be Sanat Kumara's great Baptism of Solar Energy upon this Planet. You as a channel (and all Light-Servers) are requested to keep a three day vigil before, during and following the Eclipse.

Let ALL of My Beloved Ones open the door of their being, and give the calls for Enlightenment, Purification and Transmutation, and a Changing of the physical form, and the opening of the Third Eye. For this will be a potent time for those who serve the Light of God!

In the proportion that you have Light, Light will be given you abundantly. Present yourselves in prayer, in calls, in Light during those three days for Healing and Help and Deliverance from Earthly weights that so easily beset you.

The Solar Eclipse shall pour down upon the Earth from the Ancient of Days great Rays of cleansing and healing and glorious blessings. Then is the time to open your mouth wide, and give forth with the mouth, the desires of your hearts, whatever they may be, and the King of Glory shall supply all your needs as well as your desires.

As the moon is but a reflector of the Light of the Sun, so shall those who serve the Light at this Eclipse, be reflectors of the Light of the King and the Ancient of Days.

I am Sanat Kumara. I send this message that all of My Beloved Ones may take this great step forward into the Power and Glory of the Aquarian Age."

The above was recorded at Cancer Full Moon via the channel "Tuella", of the City of the Sun - a small community in New Mexico, U.S.A.

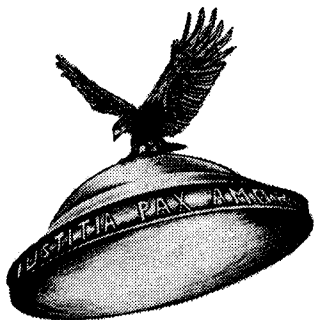

It is passed to you without comment but for any necessary action you are impressed to take.

We would, however, remind you of the Message from Mary, the Mother of Jesus to the four girls in Spain on 1 January 1965 in which she referred to a phenomenon similar to fire or LIGHT, to be seen by everyone: "It will be as if our sins will be revealed to us."

You are also referred to Revelation and Daniel Chapter 7: 9, 13 and 22 in which it is shewn that the Ancient of Days has to come before the Son of Man.

God loves you, Iquacio!
God bless you!

Dear Friend:

As you might guess, a diversity of material comes to my attention at The Light Centre. I always try to read all the various publications and communications, because I find most of it has an interesting message and point of view and is shared with sincerity. Fortunately, we receive little that is of a negative nature, but if I do find it disturbing, I merely drop it in the waste basket and forget it.

I am not disturbed by predictions of great earth changes that will bring distress to mankind. I can see, that unless man begins now, to change his ways and learns to live in harmony with his fellowman and the planet, that these cleansings might become necessary...it is so predicted in the Holy Bible. However, it is not necessarily so. Man has free will, and he can choose to ignore the teachings of the Masters, who have walked this Earth before him, and the warnings given by the Space People, and thus bring disaster upon himself. But he can also choose to learn to live in peace and harmony with all Life-forms and thus nullify or at least modify the dire predictions.

You will find, as you read our publication, that we do not deal with negative ideas. That is not the nature of our work. We are committed to teach all who are ready to learn, how to become Christed ...one in consciousness with the Divine Self within, and the lessons we offer to our readers, we also use and practice, as we seek to lift our consciousness, and thus the vibrations we radiate into the world. We are learning to master this world of illusion, so that we may live in the 4th Dimension...the expanded Conscious Awareness of the Aquarian Age.

As a group, we were advised by the Masters to refrain from eating all flesh foods, no alcohol, tobacco, coffee, tea or cola, and we passed these suggestions on to our readers, to accept or reject. Even in the group, the individual was free to decide what he or she was ready to eliminate from their life-style. It is not enough to pray for the Kingdom of Heaven to become visible on Earth. One has to put forth a little effort to prepare to meet the increasing Cosmic radiations coming into Planet Earth. Flexability and change are necessary. The whole Universe is changing and expanding and man must also. He has come to the crossroads where there is little time left for hesitation. A choice must be made...whom will you serve...the little personality self that lives only for the pleasures of the moment or the God Self ...the You, you were meant to express...the You that overcomes death, refusing to see anything but Perfection, until all that is less than good dies out of his world for lack of attention.

These teachings are not new. They are a part of the Ancient Wisdom withheld from man, because he wasn't ready to be trusted with it and the teachings of Christ Jesus, that haven't really been tried because, unless you have set your foot upon the Path of Christhood, they are ideas that seem impractical and foolish.

Some psychics and even some channels, who are not in touch with the Love and Wisdom Plane of the Masters, are drawing from the astral realm. This realm, which is still closely associated with Earth, is peopled with the thought-forms created by man, and those souls not evolved enough to ascend to the Heaven Worlds, and is also the realm from which the Brothers of Darkness operate. Like Earth, it is a realm of duality, Light and Dark, good and evil, positive and negative, so the guidance is not always trustworthy. Those channels or Light Workers who are able to contact the Masters, bring forth messages that are helpful and positive in nature. The Masters never give advice or tell you what to do, tho They may explain the basis of your problem.

In the end, the only true guide and Source of Wisdom for each individual lies Within. It is your own God-Self...the Father-Within, that each one must seek out for himself. Each one travels the Path to Godhood alone...no one can do it for you.

I hope that between the two of us, the answers given will be of some help. Copies of our publication were sent first class, surface mail. I hope you have received them.

Love and Blessings

New Message about the Changes

By Gildas - June 1978

51

Some of our readers may have read the correspondence in New Humanity following the publication of Gildas's August 1977 message on the changes, which you have all had. There have also been so many conflicting messages from various sources that we thought it timely to ask Gildas for an up-to-date and fuller statement which he willingly agreed to give.

Gildas:

I am sorry that once more you have suffered this anxiety about conflicting messages concerning the changes. There are many levels at work here, and it is a major concern of some guides and some groups to stir people up and to make them realise that the world is even now in a phase of "change". At one time it seemed that mankind would be precipitated into the new conditions in an extremely violent way, though it would all have been right and different and reached a new level afterwards, but the trauma and shock were to be avoided if possible. { A very delicate balance has been negotiated over some years between the opposing forces, and now, as I have told you before, a major victory has been attained, a turning point reached, and we are confident that all is very much more controlled, and that cataclysmic universal shock and trauma to mankind will be avoided, and the New Age will dawn in harmony, peace and beauty, with a very wide recognition of and readiness for the new conditions. This puts the estimate of when this state will be achieved some way further ahead than in the next four years. }

It is essential, however, that all who consciously follow the path should experience within themselves the knowledge that trauma of great intensity could have been a part of these changes. The greater issues need to be resolved and "acted out" on every level, and there does need to be an awakening, by a somewhat negative manifestation, on all levels, and as universally as possible, in the years preceding the change. It is thus that conflicting messages are in circulation; but I am rather concerned about the intensity of the effects that some of these messages are having, hence my stress on the positive side, and on positive thinking and expectation. We do not want panic-stricken groups moving to new areas which are considered "safe", for instance. This would greatly upset a certain balance of distribution of levels of knowledge and experience which we must endeavour to maintain. ⊕

When the world enters the New Age, or the time of change, living conditions, the experiential range, the form of matter will be different and more rarefied, and a new phase of universal karmic redemption will be entered upon; there will be a whole positive shift of levels. Some of these changes will be brought about by a tilt of the earth's axis, and by certain new constellations in the entire solar system, which will attract some disasters of every kind, both natural and brought about by the powers over which man has control; but such is the balance that has been achieved that these will be minor and localised when compared with what we once feared would happen. There will be no major or large-scale breakdowns in communications and essential services, or new and greater experiences of disaster than have already been known in recent times. The tilt of the earth's axis is happening gradually, and all the things which must be a part of man's experience, because of the karmic factors involved, will happen before the changes, and to those who need to be in the midst of such happenings for various reasons necessary to the total pattern of man's destiny. Axis }

The earth plane, when the changes have taken place, will not cease to be an area for physical incarnation and experience; the known patterns will continue on a different level. The new forms and ease of communication with and knowledge of other planets and other levels of being will

Evil

I have emphasised latterly the need for healing, and have turned much of my attention, along with many other groups, to this task; but experience is part of healing and growth, and in the harmonious wholeness which we seek to achieve, the negative states must be recognised as necessary to the total harmonious growth.

In considering preparations for these new happenings, and the very considerable difference into which the world and mankind must grow, it is, as always, necessary to see and to respect the many levels upon which knowledge and preparation can take place. A great many of you are already very attuned to the positive possibilities and have contacts with this side of life, and access to the spiritual possibilities within your experience; thus you have lightened and prepared your being in many ways, possibly over a considerable period of time. It is not then for you that the messages which demand extremely practical preparation levels are intended. For many, a down-to-earth, practical experience forms part of their awakening and growth, and can be transmuted at the right time on to other levels. Thus an exercise in self-sufficiency or well-digging can become a part of spiritual preparation, but not all have to go through this particular level of experience.

Each individual will prepare in his own specific way, and those who are of like mind and direction are already being drawn into groups to work together. It is inevitable, then, that there should be some conflicting information and ways of seeing the same experience which lies ahead for all. If you can see that this is inevitable, and understand and respect the many idioms and ways, and yet remain true and faithful to your own inner guidance and knowledge, then you will come very harmoniously through these times and very surely remain upon the path which is yours to tread.

All is very carefully protected, and each step in these crucial times is minutely observed; there is an immense amount of work for us to do on this side, and again very many aspects to this work.

At the moment those who are in incarnation, or coming into it, bring with them a great many karmic tasks, and often need to live lives that have much change in them and several phases, in order that all the "karmic ends" may be "tied up", before the new level of karmic redemption begins.

The changes will come, and they will be most wonderfully satisfying and beautiful to all who experience them, whether still in earth incarnation or from the next phase of life. The lead-up to these times will be full of many experiences, some negative, but all very necessary, and of great diversity, and perhaps with some feeling of confusion; basically the pattern is strong and secure, and the coming age may be approached with confidence and serenity. }}

Q. A question was asked in America as to what exactly you implied by the sentence in your August 1977 message: "Over the past few years a delicate and difficult balance has been negotiated."

Gildas:

In "the delicate balance which has been negotiated" I was referring to the immense battle on a much higher level which has been fought between the pure forces of darkness and light. This has of course had many manifestations on every level within your experience too, but (I was not intending to be specific about areas here) to examine it in any way. The two ways of life are quite different, and there is some way to go yet before it is safe to make contact in the physical sense. It is possible though to send out general telepathic thoughts of friendliness and light, and these positive efforts will help much more than a negative attitude of fear of the unknown.

While stressing that those from other planets are in general beneficent and wishing to extend knowledge, and are curious as you are about other races and forms of life, it is also necessary to say that inevitably there is the other side of the coin and there will be the occasional negative manifestation from other worlds. This again springs not necessarily from true hostility or evil intent, but from ignorance and fear, and the growing knowledge that explorations from this planet are also being made into space, which are potentially dangerous and threatening to other races.

There is no real possibility of brain-washing. The knowledge of other races and their powers are different, and if a positive attitude is not adopted, the intense and understandable fear which can be engendered by other-worldly manifestations can put you in a weakened position. If you are grounded in a positive recognition of your own strengths, which are not less but different, there should be little difficulty even with those who are of negative intent in retaining complete integrity at every level.

As the changes approach and certain barriers in communication are broken down, a common meeting point will be established; the whole picture will become very much clearer.

In summary, then, be cautious about these attempts at contact, but positive, and try to send positive thoughts to those who often require help, or are trying genuinely to be of help and service to a brother race.

Q. What then of the idea, still so frequently mentioned, that when the changes are physically imminent UFOs will come in large numbers to evacuate many of earth's population, perhaps temporarily, to a similar planet prepared for them?

Gildas:

A mass evacuation of people from this planet by another race or other beings is certainly not feasible or part of the plan. The earth plane needs to remain, for a great stretch of time to come, very much as it is, as (an area of existence) in order for development, and this is why we work so continuously to keep any disturbance, as the changes approach, at a minimal level. It would certainly not serve our purpose, then, to have many in earth incarnation removed from the planet, even if for a relatively short time. These thoughts and visions of this sort of thing happening spring mainly from human fear of what may happen, and (the seeking of an answer to survival in the face of insurmountable difficulties.) The difficulties will not be insurmountable, and you will be very guided and protected.

Ignacio, my dear friend,

This daily examination has helped me in identifying the influences of undesirable entities directed toward me.

If you will read chapter 22 in the Book of Loka of OAHSPÉ a better understanding and purpose of this exercise using this form can be obtained. It is not easy to do, but above all - be honest to yourself and keep this record in a safe place away from the eyes of anyone.

By making twelve copies of this form, you will have space for every day of the year. Then, at the end of the year, you can make a just evaluation of your efforts; or for that matter you can observe your efforts on a more frequent basis if you like.

May the All Highest ever guide you.

ULTIMATE REALITY 59

by Pat Martin

It was as though I were a bird and had an overall view of a drama going on below me. First of all I saw a young man sitting cross-legged, meditating. He was dressed in the clothes of a Buddhist monk. While I watched, he suddenly went into an ecstatic state of bliss, from which he jumped up and proclaimed, "I have seen God, I must go and tell the world what this bliss is like." He called it Nirvana. I then saw him set off on his journey across the world, convinced he would set the world free.

The story then took me to another part of the world, to a room with strange signs and symbols on the walls and floor. A man sat at an altar with candles and incense and all sorts of paraphernalia. He was intensely absorbed in a pile of volumes, and, as I watched him experimenting and mumbling certain words, he suddenly stopped and a look of sheer joy came over his face. After a few moments he grabbed up his books and slung them into the fire. He shouted for joy, and proclaimed, "I will tell the world I have merged with that Cosmic Consciousness."

Then I went across the world to a place where a Yogi sat concentrating. He was practising Raja Yoga, mind control. He too broke through into an untold state of bliss and cried, "It is Samadhi; I must tell the whole world how to get there."

The next scene was in a little church where a man knelt in prayer. As I watched him, a great emotion overcame him, and he wept and cried, "The Kingdom of Heaven, the peace which passeth all understanding. I will begin a Christian mission and tell all of this blessed state." Off he went.

Finally, my story took me to a beautiful country scene by a stream. There sat a mystic, deep in thought, trying to find words to express his feelings for the beauty, the splendour of nature all around him. Suddenly his eyes caught the reflection of himself in the stream; his body went very still, a peace spread over his face, and tears came into his eyes. He was transfixed, hypnotised, and held for what seemed ages. His brow smoothed out, the tension left his face, and an untold bliss came upon him. He grabbed his pen and his pad and scribbled away trying to describe this beauty and this love, for which he could find no name.

At this point I could see all these men travelling their different paths to tell the world. From different points on the earth eventually they all landed at the same spot, and, on meeting, began excitedly to convert one another. All were enthusiastically trying to tell of their experience. Much to their amazement, none could find words to convey the experience itself (there being no words to describe it anyway). One kept trying to explain that Samadhi was THE ultimate experience; another was saying, "No, Cosmic Consciousness is the ultimate reality, your experience is just a step on the way to this." The Christian was frantically calling out, "The Kingdom of Heaven is within; when you find that, you will have found peace and all your sins will be forgiven through Christ."

I could see all this going on below me like a drama on the stage; in fact that is what it was, the great drama of life taking place, and the whole earth was the stage. From this point, the voices started to fade away and the scene carried on like a mime play. The figures were all striving to make their points, to assert their truth as the ultimate truth, all trying to convince the rest that their own truth was the highest and that if only the others would give up their experience of truth and see it as a trip of the mind, then they too would experience the ultimate. Each one of them was saying the very same things, yet each was convinced that he and he alone was right.

The voices were completely gone now, so all I could see and feel were their expressions and their inner feelings. I realised that each one had had his first taste of God, and also that they had all fallen into the same trap, the snare that awaits all who experience the reality for the first time. It was the snare of spiritual pride, whose offspring is arrogance which kills humility.

As I continued to watch the silent drama, I was shown that this subtle veil of pride prevented each of them seeing that their experiences were ONE experience; that there IS only ONE ultimate reality, and therefore only ONE experience of it. It showed me that words, names, labels so often hide the truth, and that, if just one of those men had been able to see beyond his own set of symbols, names and words, he would have 'caught' and realised the truth of the other men's experience, recognising it as the very same truth as his own.

I, too, now realise that the greatest tribute and praise we can ever give to God, or truth, is SILENCE; and that one who had in fact realised the true reality would instantly recognise another who had realised it, no matter what name each gave to its source. He would see and feel way behind and beyond all words and names.

Mary Swainson of Oadby sent this article to us after having read the small item in our issue 27 (page 2), 'Truth has no labels . . .', and the letter by Richard Raper also in that issue (page 17), and our comments thereon.

This was a true dream or vision, experienced between 9 and 11 p.m. one night, when Pat had gone early to bed, very tired. After it, she woke refreshed and spent most of the rest of the night writing it down, as she felt she must.

Subjectively she took the dream as a 'warning' in her own life, for she has herself tried the many paths, and has recently come to a point of balance and stillness and peace, beyond them all, in her own growth. She is a Yoga teacher, unspoiled by too much education!

The strongest heart will faint sometimes under the feeling that enemies are bitter, and that friends only know half its sorrows. The most resolute soul will now and then cast back a yearning look in treading the rough mountain-path, away from the greensward and laughing voices of the valley.
