

In Pursuit of The Ultimate Frontier

Good Versus Evil

*A discussion with
Richard Kieninger*

Copyright 2008

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form by photostat, microfilms, xerography, or any other means, or incorporated into any information retrieval system; electronic or mechanical, without the written permission of the copyright owner.

Printing history

First printing 2009

Edited by Warren Curry, et al

PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Notes Regarding the Recording and Transcription

The In Pursuit of the Ultimate Frontier series was remastered from the original ten-inch, reel-to-reel tapes that were recorded at ten inches per second and, thus, required no cleanup. Only occasionally were the following grammatical touches needed.

Textual Editings

- All punctuation
- Noun and pronoun agreement (case, number, and gender)
- Verb tense
- Subject-verb agreement
- Article use
- Dividing up of really, really long sentences
- Removal of extraneous and redundant words and phrases
- Creation of the topic titles and table of contents

Audio Remastering

- Tape hiss reduction

Table of Contents

All Evil Is of Human Origin	1
Telepathic Hypnosis Is the Tool of Evil	2
Becoming Susceptible to Telepathic Thoughts	3
The Methods of Evil	5
History of the Original Illuminati	8
History of the Shamballa and Agartha	12
The Agartha Work with the Nazi	15
Funding the Nazi Party	15
Closing	17

In Memoriam

This transcription and the accompanying CDROM is a small tribute to the late Richard Kieninger who devoted his life toward the upliftment of mankind. Calling to the world through the message in his book, The Ultimate Frontier, he showed those who were looking for a better way of life how to build and govern the intentional communities of Stelle, Illinois and Adelphi, Texas. The need for a more peaceful and respectful way of life is evidenced by the fact that both these towns are alive and well to this day.

Thank you!

In Pursuit of The Ultimate Frontier

Good Versus Evil

A discussion with
Richard Kieninger

All Evil Is of Human Origin

CJ: Hello, and welcome once again to, “In Pursuit of the Ultimate Frontier.” I’m Charley Jones your moderator for this weekly series of discussion programs. With me in the studio is Richard Kieninger, author of the book, The Ultimate Frontier, under his pen name, Eklal Kueshana. Richard, welcome to the program, once again.

RK: It’s good to be here again, Charley.

CJ: It is good to have you back again. Today’s topic concerns the battle between good and evil. If you have attended church, what you hear about good and evil primarily has to do with you have to do with it. Very seldom do you hear anything concrete about the actual conflict between good and evil itself. Richard, maybe you could focus today's discussion for us by making a few notes on what actually constitutes evil.

RK: All evil has its origins in mankind. It does not come from Higher Beings. There are no fallen Angels. Even the name Lucifer is falsely equated with Satan. Satan and the Devil are merely representations which are symbolic which are not accurate not actual. They are not specific individuals, but rather sinfulness and evil taken together.

CJ: So, it is a formal referencing that has been personified through conditional use?

RK: Yes. As many times happens, the traditions and the symbols take on the aura of reality and it's carried on from generation to generation after that. The technique that is used by evil, which is external to an individual and, indeed, all of us are capable of our own evil, stems from a mental control that evil persons have by way of telepathic hypnosis. Some of these mentalists are discarnate human beings such as spirit guides who control mediums to speak through them.

Telepathic Hypnosis Is the Tool of Evil

CJ: Apparently, the term telepathic hypnosis infers that you can be influenced in your thoughts. You can hear thoughts inside your head that are not your own?

RK: Correct. It is almost impossible for any of us to know where a thought, that goes through our consciousness, comes from. Some individuals are able to actually able to knock somebody out telepathically or to command them to do something and they will do it. Those persons are incarnate, self-serving hypnotists, witches, sorcerers, and devil-cults of one sort or another. The worst of all are the Tibetan cave communities of the Agarthi and the Shamballa. Worse, mainly because they are the most powerful and most effective and have been for many, many centuries.

CJ: Can we assume, then, that anyone may be subject to suggestion at a distance?

RK: Yes, anyone. But, now whether or not you do something about it is something else again. What you dwell upon is entirely up to you. You don't have to concentrate on a thought or "buy it" just because it occurs to you or feel some compulsion to think an idea through to its end. If it seems perverse, stop thinking about it. Think of something else which is more positive.

Becoming Susceptible to Telepathic Thoughts

CJ: There certainly has been a number of movies on people being subjected to the influence of evil.

RK: You have to make yourself subject to it, and most people have no idea of how evil operates. They really are kind of helpless in perceiving how to protect themselves against this enemy when they don't understand how this enemy operates. No person can be taken over by an evil influences if he or she maintains positive, loving thoughts and develops what many people have called a Christ Consciousness, which essentially is a loving consciousness. Protection comes from Higher Beings through protective prayers to Christ. One's own fear or hatred or lust for power over others; that makes one susceptible to inroads by nether entities. You have an obligation to not think evil thoughts, because people step-by-step can convert you to from one mode of thinking, subtly, over a decade to yet another. You don't have to go very far to find people who used to believe more beautifully about things and more effectively who now find themselves becoming cynical, overly sophisticated. They are not evil, they are just not contributing to good. The forces of evil are all human beings who, literally, seek the destruction of civilization and goodness. They really like to see men terrorized by fear of death. If you figure that wherever there is tyranny, the forces of evil have fomented it in some way. Wherever truth is twisted and distorted, there, too, are the forces of evil developing cruel and hate-filled rulers. Religionists of that type seek destruction of the teachers of light and truth.

All founders of great religions taught peace and brotherly love and non-acquisitiveness. But, the teachers who later taught in the names of these founders, succeeded eventually in convincing believers to hate the believers of other great teachers: the Hindus slay Muslims in India, the Catholics slew the Huguenots in France., and Christians slew the Saracens in religious crusades in the name of Christ. Everyone wants love and peace and beauty and security, and most of us can figure out that if we want those things we have to give it other people. The desire for power and fame, I think, is what leads men to destroy the country and life and home of other men. Very frequently, just to be recorded in history to be regarded as powerful men, inspire the gullible and innocent to die for their causes. Think of Genghis Khan, Atilla, Hitler or Napoleon; they all sought to kill and conquer more than anybody else had before them. It has amounted to the blood of countless tens of millions shed. And for what: the insanity induced by evil forces.

CJ: What do you see as the common thread, Richard?

RK: I think most power-hungry persons, frequently out of fear, feel the only way they can be secure is to have control over everybody else. Those power-hungry persons are sought by evil. Evil influence's then introduce perversion upon perversion in those persons, and helps them rise to positions of great influence in secular and religious areas where they are striving to get to the top.

The Methods of Evil

CJ: You reminded me of a discussion we had on an earlier program. We were talking about members of Agarathi helping the Nazi by sending representatives from Tibet to Berlin to invoke the intervention of evil powers on the side of the Germans. Why don't you detail the Agarthis again for our listeners.

RK: The Agarathi specialize in astral travel, which they call Eckankar, and induce illusory scenarios telepathically in people who have been persuaded to develop astral traveling on their own. Those people are then misled by the Agarathi.

CJ: So, we are discussing telepathic hypnosis, again?

RK: Right. They can create a whole scenario, just like a television program in that person's mind. You may think you are encountering real experiences, but actually you are the unwitting receiver of a play which they put on for you, which is done entirely mentally.

CJ: It is induced?

RK: Correct. The Agarathi also inspire false leadership in the world, the lust for power, and the misuse of magical powers. The Agarathi work with the Shamballa, also, who specialize in fostering illusions of materialism, and inducing perverse sexual cravings to people in the world in order to lead them to despair, to the end that then man is made to lose sight of his spiritual possibilities and destiny. The Shamballa promote false religions through mediums. For instance, the latest thing, so-called "Space Brothers," coming from other galaxies to guide us into the proper way of doing things. These are strictly the creation of both the spirit mentalists and the Tibetan cave communities. Any religion or philosophy which is delivered through spirit mediums is ipso facto false and is designed to mislead. Just as the Shamballa work to pervert Christianity and the Mundane schools of the Brotherhoods through their agent Madame Blavatsky, they now develop mediums with the strange new beliefs that surprisingly get much publicity and heavy funding, and subsequently gain large followings of, essentially, frightened, bewildered, and frustrated types who have the fanatic willingness to kill for their greater glory of their beliefs and their charismatic leaders.

CJ: I'm inclined to think of James Jones and Guyana.

RK: He was a piker. There are many others who have it in mind to kill millions.

CJ: Ignorance of the fact that you can be suggested to, and what you hear inside your head is causing mischief the world over.

RK: But, we do have the protection. All we have to do is ask for it. Higher Beings do not interfere with us in any way. We are entitled to experiment with whatever we need to experiment with in order to learn. Man is a mistake-making creature. We can try all kinds of things. And, we have to in order to grow to virtue from ignorance. Today, the populace is being subjected to all kinds of things through being perverted by negative entertainment—all you have to do is look at some of the movies that are coming out today. There is a lot of commercial music which literally creates anger and despair in its listeners. It is designed to do that, and is being given large audiences. The ready availability of drugs; there is a reason behind that. It is not just make somebody, it is to undermine people; to destroy civilization. There are people who have that in mind. All of this is leading to the coming reign of the Antichrist who will be under the personal domination of evil; of being elevated in power by certain persons from among a score or so of bankers and industrialists who are trying to enslave mankind under a one-world government. This one-world government idea is really serving the Mentalists scheme to prevent the conditions of freedom and self-directedness for anyone's spiritual growth.

You probably are aware of the movement of conservatism seen both now in politics and fundamentalist religionism in Arab and Jewish and Christian sects in the world. All of this is really engendered by the same kind of fear that ran rampant in German in the nineteen-thirties which resulted in wholesale oppression and murderousness against Germans by fellow Germans and then again against outsiders in World War II. The most conservative religions will join and foster the fascistic attitudes that will raise the Antichrist to power before he is recognized as who he is. Arrogance and bloodlust will be the hallmarks of the conservative religions in America, Europe, and the Middle East as the end of the century approaches.

Obedience, submission, and terror will be the expected lot of religious believers just as it was in Nazi Germany. Nazism was a satanic religion, but it also had control over the government. Prophets and those who study cyclic trends in mankind's behavior have come to remarkable agreement that this is what is gathering in our near future. Fear, great insecurity, and economic turmoil will produce this self-destructive madness in men. Whoever dictates whoever shall be allowed to have food will command the allegiance of the desperately hungry. So, therefore, a manipulated economic depression and a monetary collapse are essential to gaining such total control of the masses here and abroad. And there are those who are going to do their best to make them come about.

The Shamballa are working toward big things. They are fomenting for war; a war that they have designed where everybody loses. And, yet, men will allow themselves to be drawn into this horror. And, all this during the next two decades.

History of the Illuminati

CJ: Humans, in general, have traded away their freedoms many times for the security they think that a leader can bring and the order he will establish.

RK: That is where the Shamballists hit us the hardest. It is their design to create so much chaos that people will do almost anything to get involved in a “New Order” that will prevent the possibility of war and economic collapse, in the future. The Shamballa have already managed to infiltrate and undermine almost every church and every metaphysical organization in the world through their control over selected agents into prideful strove for leadership in their respective organizations, and now have it.

CJ: What kind of time-frame are we talking about? How long is this taking?

RK: For instance, through their control of the Illuminati, the Shamballa managed to capture and use many Masonic lodges around the world for nefarious ends during the last two-hundred years, by presenting schemes that sounded beautifully idealistic to those who were duped by them.

CJ: The Illuminati is an interesting term, Richard. I have heard it bantered about, Richard. I have heard it bantered about in such ways that you could become convinced that the Illuminati don't exist or they are everywhere at once. Can you illuminate me possibly?

RK: It is hard to sort out there activities from all the myths about them. They tend to confuse the picture by playing both sides of any issue in order to foster further confusion. However, I will try to give you a little background. There was a Bavarian fellow by the name of Adam Wieshaupt who, back in 1776 organized a group of people with the idea of creating a oneworld government. He noted that the Masonic Lodges of the world had some really good concepts and decided to use their idealism and capture their attention. He cleverly represented himself as being a person who had information about the next step beyond the Masonic mysteries. There were quite a few important people who were part of the Masonic Order. In the New World, just about all the people who were in the Continental Congress and who signed the Declaration of Independence were members of the Masonic Order. Obviously, they were people who were doers and people interested in promoting ideal concepts in some ideal way.

There is plenty of documentation that indicated that Wieselhuber was put up to this idea by a family of bankers named Rothschild. The almost immediate success that he had in starting the Illuminati was due in large part to the fact that the Rothschilds knew a great many powerful people, most of whom they loaned money to. They were able to promote the beginning of this Illuminati thing. There is a lot of mythology which has surrounded all of this. I am going to try and get to just the very basis of what actually happened. This is historical and there is documentation for it.

By the time the first president of the United States took office, which was some thirteen years after the Illuminati was first started, the Illuminati were already quite an influence in the United States. People like Washington were starting to warn against them, because they seemed to be part of the banking plot to take over the currencies of the world, which was indeed the case. It became a campaign issue between John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. Jefferson, at that time, felt that combining all of the Masonic lodges under one head to the end of getting rid of monarchies and establishing democracy all over was really great. It wasn't until he himself later became president that he realized it was not to the advantage to the United States.

About eighteen-twenties, I think it was, the Illuminati did manage to force through a law whereby a private central bank would be able to issue currency. President Andrew Jackson finally put an end to that in 1834. Again, about 1913, the idea of a central bank was pressed upon Congress, and they finally voted for it. Every since then, twelve private banks, which are known as the Federal Reserve System, issue our currency and charge us interest for the privilege of issuing their own monetized notes of indebtedness against a private banking system owned, in large part, by foreigners.

In any event, Rothschild's purpose is to eventually create so much unrest, economic difficulties, political turmoil, and even war upon war that the people of the world would become disgusted with the system and would be willing, for purposes of achieving security, give up their sovereignty into a one-world government. That, indeed, was the general statement by Wieselhaupt when he wrote some of the first concepts of how the Illuminati would be able to provide a world government.

The Bavarian government discovered, about ten or twelve years after the Illuminati got started, just what they were up to, and exposed much of that information to various governments of Europe. What the Illuminati secretly have in mind for all us in the near future is to reduce everybody to a person who is assigned a job in this world and that is what they do for the rest of their lives. There are no democratic governments; only paternalistic people who run the whole thing.

However, there were many other professed elements to this Wieshaupt plan that were appealing to the Masons at that time. Although the Masons were not given the full inside information of what was supposed to be done after getting rid of the monarchies. Incidentally, the Illuminati and the Masons were very strongly instrumental in the overthrow of the French Monarchy, and they are still pretty proud of that fact. The Illuminati were interested in promoting the French Revolution into even further confusion and, at the same time, to do everything possible to undermine the French currency while all this was going on. With the collapse of the currency, the bankers managed to buy up everything that was worthwhile for a centime on the franc. The bankers gained control over the wealth of France. The Masons actually ended up being duped. The revolution sounded idealistic to them, but when you are only working with half the information, you can be “sold down the river.”

The bankers next funded Napoleon to conquer all Europe for them. While the bankers loaned the remaining monarchs of Europe large funds secured by vast collateral, and at high interest charges to defend themselves against the French Emperor’s invasion. That way the bankers couldn’t lose. If Napoleon won, they assumed ownership of the collateral. If Napoleon lost, they collected the principle plus interest.

History of the Shamballa and Agarthi

CJ: Having seen the Illuminati “thumb” in most of the political and economic strife that has come to pass in the past century or two, how did this thing get started? It is not just something that just “rolled out of the woods one day?”

RK: The Shamballa are behind it. You may have guessed that. They use their telepathic mental powers to induce visions of power and grandeur and wealth into the mind of an ambitious person.

CJ: Where did the Shamballa get started?

RK: The Shamballa and Agartha have quite an interesting history. They go back even before the time when Atlantis sank. Several centuries before the destruction of Atlantis, people living in South America, who were the forbearers of the Mayans, were being so hard-pressed by savage tribes of warlike people that they petitioned the Atlanteans to allow them to emigrate to Atlantis, to which request the Atlanteans agreed. Unfortunately, they brought along their priests. Their priests had been controlling them through, essentially, the same sort of tricks your average stage magician uses. The Mayans had not long been in Atlantis before they discovered that some Atlanteans had genuine mental abilities that they had never encountered before. They managed to get some of their Mayan members to become students to become students of the Brotherhoods School and to learn some of these mental techniques, which they hoped they could be used to manipulate their people mentally in addition to the trickery.

They were discovered in this plot by one Osiris, who happened to be head of the government at that time, and who, incidentally, was a member of the Brotherhoods. Osiris rounded up the Mayan priests and some of their more ardent followers and exiled to an island called Thule to the north where nobody was living. It was shortly after Osiris sent them into exile that some of the Mayans managed to murder Osiris.

Ever since those days, the Shamballa and the Agarthi have really been a thorn in the side of mankind. These cults of Thule were aware that the Brotherhoods knew that Atlantis was about to be submerged, so they evacuated Thule before it, too, sank. Some million people of Atlantis heeded the warning of the Brotherhood and they were airlifted to central Asia. They called themselves the Aryans. That colony grew to a huge population grew to a huge population over the next three-thousand years until the next great geological cataclysm occurred. After that great cataclysm seventy-five hundred years ago some of the Aryans moved into India as a great invasion, and some moved into the area that we presently know as Persia, now called Iran, and some went to southern Russia to become the Scythians.

When the Mentalists had moved from Thule, they setup in Tibet, between India and the Aryan colony, very close to the new headquarters that the Brotherhoods setup in Tibet. Their main object was to harass the Brotherhoods as much as possible. They felt pretty safe in doing that, because they knew that the members of the Brotherhood would not try to exterminate them, because of the karma involved in killing somebody.

Just about anybody who has aspired to spiritual greatness, anywhere in the world, at any time since then, has usually found themselves being tested by the evil influences of the Shamballa or the Agarthi.

The Agarthi Work with the Nazi

CJ: How did the Nazi get the attention of these people?

RK: Professor Haushofer started Nazism from ideas taken from Blavatsky's superman race concepts. Those concepts Blavatsky wrote about came entirely from her Shamballa teachers when she was induced Tibet for their instruction. Haushofer was aware of the general location of these cave communities and sent many expeditions to that area under the auspices of the German government until they managed to contact them. Some thirty Agarthis came to Berlin. Haushofer outlined some of the very techniques that the Illuminati had come up with on how to gain world control. There were international industrialists who favored Hitler, because he was willing and able to promote the idea of controlling labor and the government so that there wouldn't be any strikes. It was a system that would provide great profit. But, there was another force that was also involved in promoting Hitler and that was the international bankers who had managed to gain control of practically all of the currencies of the world through central banks which they founded and controlled including in the United States.

Funding the Nazi Party

CJ: Are they the people who bankrolled Hitler? He got enormous sums of money from somewhere.

RK: There was a fellow by the name of Warburg, from this country [USA], who visited Hitler and arranged to deliver hundreds and hundreds of millions of dollars to set him up in power. So, Hitler had the influence of the Illuminati working on him from different directions, but it really was the Shamballa who was really behind the whole thing. Hitler and Nazism were just a dress rehearsal for the advent of the Antichrist, which is to occur later in this century.

One of the reasons why bankers in the United States decided to back Hitler was because their plans for Russia had gone sour. Their plan was to reduce Russia to a state of total turmoil so the bankers could introduce their own agents. Lenin and Trotsky were taken into that country and took it over from the Czar. After Lenin was assassinated, Trotsky fell ill and he was sick for about four months. In that period of time, Stalin took over Russia, and Trotsky realized he had to leave the country. Many documents had fallen into Stalin's hands revealing the plan of the Trotskyites to totally destroy Russia and reduce it to helplessness so it could be brought totally under the domination of foreign money interests. Stalin, interestingly, was for Russia, where Trotsky definitely was not. The banking people decided to back Hitler because Hitler was the only person who they could see who had enough power and incentive to destroy Stalin. The Trotskyites had failed to deliver Russia to the bankers, so we had a war where the world lost many tens of millions of people, and oddly enough, the international bankers made a bundle off all of this.

When you see confusion in the streets, turmoil, economic difficulties, there the international bankers are, funding one group against the other. The whole object, of course, is to seed turmoil and confusion. The money is deflated and then we have a depression and then problems with the stock market, and yet all of this is manipulated by the people who control the world's purse-strings.

CJ: Richard, it sounds like you are saying that the world's economy, basically, is subservient to large international banking organizations that, in turn, are under the influence of the Shamballa and the Agarthi.

RK: That is what I am saying. It really is so. But, they manage to keep both hands covered all the time. You never know who is doing what or where. Nobody uses the term Illuminati any longer.

CJ: The main theme that seems to weave through these things is that all of the humans who were used as dupes by the influences and forces of evil were used as dupes through their own willingness to be so used.

RK: Right. Any in many cases eagerness.

CJ: But, we come back to the very point that the Bible made two-thousand years ago: every human being is a battlefield between good and evil.

RK: Right. It is strictly internal. If we don't provide instruments, here on the physical plane, who evil can use, then there can't be any evil. It took a long time for them to get around to developing religions and tyrants and what have you that would subvert people's innate goodness and gentleness and sensitivity to life.

CJ: Richard, once again, a fascinating, stimulating conversation with dimension not found in the history books or the philosophy books of the twentieth century. I would like to thank you for being here with us once again.

RK: Thank you very much.

CJ: And, to those of you in our listening audience, we appreciate your attention and we invite you to join us once again next week “In Pursuit of the Ultimate Frontier.”

It is almost impossible for any of us to know where a thought, that goes through our consciousness, comes from. Some individuals are able to actually able to knock somebody out telepathically or to command them to do something and they will do it. Those persons are incarnate, self-serving hypnotists, witches, sorcerers, and devil-cults of one sort or another. The worst of all are the Tibetan cave communities of the Agarthi and the Shamballa. What you dwell upon is entirely up to you. You don't have to concentrate on a thought or "buy it" just because it occurs to you or feel some compulsion to think an idea through to its end. If it seems perverse, stop thinking about it. Think of something else which is more positive.

No person can be taken over by an evil influences if he or she maintains positive, loving thoughts. One's own fear or hatred or lust for power over others; that makes one susceptible to inroads by nether entities. You have an obligation to not think evil thoughts. Wherever there is tyranny, the forces of evil have fomented it in some way. Wherever truth is twisted and distorted, there, too, are the forces of evil developing cruel and hate-filled rulers.

The desire for power and fame, I think, is what leads men to destroy the country and life and home of other men. I think most power-hungry persons, frequently out of fear, feel the only way they can be secure is to have control over everybody else. Evil influence's then introduce perversion upon perversion in those persons, and helps them rise to positions of great influence in secular and religious areas where they are striving to get to the top.

All founders of great religions taught peace and brotherly love and non-acquisitiveness. Everyone wants love and peace and beauty and security, and most of us can figure out that if we want those things we have to give it other people.