List 151 Man, myth and magic

Alternative philosophies, religions and sciences, mysticism & spiritualism, witchcraft and folklore, occult studies of all kinds

Including the spiritualist library of Hugh R.Hulbert of Windermere, literary critic and author

The books in this catalogue are all 8vo, published in London and in very good condition or better, unless otherwise stated. Bookplates and inscriptions are noted only if of particular interest or if obtrusive. Dustwrappers are protected with outer polypropylene or archival plastic covers. All books are sold as complete unless otherwise stated. Any item found not to be matching its description may be returned within seven days of receipt.

Postage and packing are charged extra at cost, but all books are insured in transit free of charge.

Payment may be made by cheque or credit card, and all major cards are accepted – EUROCARD, MASTERCARD, MAESTRO, SOLO, VISA (credit and debit cards), SWITCH and AMERICAN EXPRESS. Please give your card number, name of card holder, issue number or commencement date where appropriate, expiry date and security number, when ordering. You can also use PAYPAL, but this will usually incur an extra charge.

Overseas customers should remit in sterling whenever possible. Cheques, drafts or money orders in other currencies are subject to an additional charge of £10.00 to cover bank conversion charges. Electronic transfer (BACS) is often the easiest and cheapest way to send funds, and we will advise you of all necessary details on request.

Visitors are very welcome at any mutually suitable time, strictly by appointment please.

Web-site: www.holletts-rarebooks.co.uk. Illustrations of most of the items in this catalogue may be seen on our website. Orders may be placed on the secure page there at any time. The order form there encodes your details and transmits them to us for processing. We do the sums and add the postage costs and put the transaction through this end - it is deliberately not a full e-commerce site in order that we can retain control (in case books are ordered which are already sold etc.) so you will not see the 'lock' symbol, but it is totally secure.

Joanna Southcott (1750-1814), daughter of a Devon farmer, visionary and mystic, claimed the gift of prophecy from about 1792, prophesied the second coming and that she would give birth to the Son of God. From 1804 to 1814 she lived at the house of her wealthy patron and secretary Jane Townley. In 1814, at the age of 64, she apparently became pregnant, but soon after she died from brain disease. Her prophesies and claims gave her many followers and caused considerable controversy both at the time and later, but most of the related books were published provincially and are now scarce.
