

Sharon Shane

Biography

Sharon Shane is a channeled intuitive, spiritual teacher, author, international speaker and artist. Born in 1950 in New Jersey in the United States, she discovered her intuitive gifts in early childhood. From 1970 through 1995, she began to explore consciousness and expression of her Soul through writing and recording music, singing, performing and various mediums of art, in addition to a steady diet of non-stop study of spiritual topics.

After doing personal physical body cleansing in the mid-1970's and personal emotional purification work in the mid-1980's, she began to teach others these methods of self-healing. In the late 1980's, after many years of intense meditation and Kundalini awakenings, her 12th chakra opened to build the antahkarana light connection to the Spiritual Hierarchy. Since then she has worked in alignment with the Ascended Masters to discover more of her mission in Divine Plan. Sharon has over 16 years of experience as a spiritual teacher. She works both with teaching groups and closely with her students through one-on-one apprenticeship programs.

In addition to being the author of five books, In the Garden of the Goddess, The Rhythm of the Cosmic Pulse, Architects of Light, Spiritually Awake in the Physical World and Teachings from the Temple of Thoth, she has written a series of online e-mail newsletters entitled, Awakenings, Endless Possibilities, and Spiritual Essence. Her poetry, articles and interviews have been published in various holistic magazines including, Aromatherapy Journal, Soul Brasil Magazine, Born to Inspire, Precognito Magazine, AURA Magazine, Mystic Pop and Wisdom Magazine. She has also authored the first chapter The Synchronistic Dance of an Awakening Soul for a compilation book entitled "Spiritual Awakenings" by Maggie Erotokritou, which was published in September 2005.

After returning from a trip to Ecuador and the Amazon rainforest in 1998 with the Dreamchange Coalition, Sharon worked with shamans and medicine men and women from many indigenous cultures around the world to learn integration through various spiritual paths. For three years, she dedicated her energies by serving on the panel of wisdom decision makers for the non-profit organization, Journey to the Heart, whose purpose is to bring indigenous healers from around the world together in annual gatherings to share cross-cultural teachings. Her travels to teach workshops in the United States and Internationally have given her a broader reach to many wonderful people on the spiritual path.

In 1999, she established the publishing company, Liquid Light Center, which is a conceptual co-creation between Sharon and the Ascended Master guides. The Liquid Light Center name was given directly to her by Ascended Master St. Germain. Through Liquid Light Center, she publishes the channeled writings and principles of mastery of the Spiritual Hierarchy, as well as a series of channeled classes and events. The teachings and workshops of Liquid Light Center are aligned with the empowerment of the "I AM" mastery principles of ascension and transfiguration.

In February and September of 2000, she was a scheduled speaker at the Lifeways Psychic Expo in Los Angeles, California and also participated as a facilitator at World Fest 2000, among many other events both on the East and West Coasts of the United States. Sharon has been interviewed on both radio and Internet web cam appearances.

With directions from the Spiritual Hierarchy, she implemented "The Great OM Event" in May of 2003. This was a worldwide chanting that brought hundreds of thousands of participants into unification to raise the resonance of the earth and humanity towards harmony and peace, during which she conducted a local ceremony at The Agape Center in Los Angeles.

Her higher intuitive senses felt the Mevlana Supreme Foundation connected with her and this connection was confirmed by the honored invitation to speak at their November 1, 2003 "Call to World Peace by the Universal Brotherhood" symposium in Istanbul, Turkey. Sharon also participated for three years in visionary partnership with the Mevlana Supreme Foundation in their efforts aligned with Divine Plan.

In December 2004, she was invited by Barbara Rose to be a faculty member to the Institute of Higher Self Communication, and she is a member of the Coalition for Visionary Resources and Sound Healers Association. Sharon continues her international travels for various speaking and channeling events, as well as offering Internet classes and channeling events to the global community.

Teachings from the Temple of Thoth as channeled by Sharon Shane

Thoth is a Master Teacher throughout the ages of humanity. In these Temple Teachings, Thoth gives an overview of the physical universe manifestation, as well as the creation principles of the Full-Light encodement within the ascended Light Realms.

Teachings from the Temple of Thoth offers new insights into the transformation process, as well as the higher science of transfiguration of 144,000 meridian points of Light body, and personal, global and universal ascension. In the words of Thoth as invitation to the initiate on the path of mastery, "Walk with me through the Halls of Amenti. To enter these Halls is to walk the Supreme path. Walk with me and your fathers before you. We are with you ever and a day to add more Light to the Light that is already."

EXCERPTS FROM BOOKS BY SHARON SHANE

"The triangles of reflections of universes upon universes infinite Light on shadows play. When the mirror reflects the truth through all ages, the ages of the human being will cease to be. This is the key to immortality, and the god being will emerge from the darkened cocoon fully awakened. Until the god beings awaken, the earth will spin in revolution and revolutions will spin the veil of deception. In the revealing of revelations, the keys will unlock the codes. When the stars in your heavens align with the stars that you are, peace will reign Supreme.

There are keys to opening the star gates. There are frequencies of encodements within every level of consciousness. Every conscious being is a portal in itself. The stars within your universal system reflect the star gate portals in your consciousness. As you see the reflection in the night sky, it is to turn inward to seek the portal there. As you approach the portal within your inner consciousness, there are keys to unlock."

TEACHINGS FROM THE TEMPLE OF THOTH c 2007 Sharon Shane

"Prosperity is the Cosmic design for what is there in all of creation that cannot flourish in a Love so Divine? Your roots are watered in the depths of your Soul, now will your Spirits bring forth the fruits from this tree of life? From the deep still waters pour forth an endless tide of blessings. Beatitude becomes you. Diamonds of clarity shine in your mind's eye. Wellsprings of wisdom wash over your feet as you walk the path of knowing. Purity of heart cleanses the waters of life, and the waters of life flow forth to nurture the land.

Joy resounds with its echoing refrain forever and a day. Peace through harmony is its song. Lift the voice of your Soul to sing, and witness the colorful tones of the new creation. You are the new creation. Walk now anew through the bountiful garden of idealized dreams made manifest. Within the Golden solar Light of the Great Central Sun the Soul is bathed in its glorious raiment. Walk in the Golden raiment of the Light that you are and are always becoming. Shine your radiant splendor in its fullest glory. The Light that is and ever shall be forever shines its brilliance, and you will always and forever add Light to the Light that is already. The Golden Cities are in the palm of your hand. The power of creation awaits your command. You are the Light that your world awaits. Be the truth, walk the truth, live the truth and the truth will be known. Step into mastery. Know. It is already accomplished."

ARCHITECTS OF LIGHT c 2004 Sharon Shane

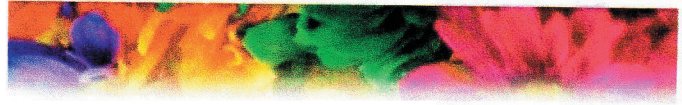

"The visionary will always be ahead of their time in the externalization of Divine Plan. A visionary must be willing to either permanently release or temporarily suspend the restrictions of the past in order to quantum leap into the unknown future. This future is the realm of higher dreams and visions and is the state of awakening consciousness that is eternally becoming more. The visionary future is not a marked place in time but is the state of conscious expansion. The illusory past is continuously recreated from underlying belief systems that cage consciousness within its own limitations. The past is the state of constriction. Each present moment is the point of power to effect change or evolution of consciousness.

The world is in great need of visionaries to ensure its evolution. Because the collective world is always a few steps behind, it will never be quite ready to accept the proclamations of the visionary at the point of time the vision is presented. From out of its constricted state, it is this same world of consensus population that often condemns the dreamers. Such condemnation from the external world may incite a visionary towards the temptation to embrace the martyr syndrome. There is but a fine line between a visionary dreamer and a martyred saint. Martyr chokes off the dream at its roots and, if not outright inhibiting its fruition, may taint its manifested form. A visionary must hold steadfast to the vision while simultaneously refusing to martyr oneself for the sake of the vision. The task that lies before them is to gracefully lay the foundations of their vision so that others may walk more smoothly into the future. Bringing pieces of the greater dream to the world in small doses in order to make them palatable for everyday consumption can aid the visionary in their task. Seeking sole claim to any vision entices the ego to become martyred if or when recognition is not given for having been the first to impart the vision. Awakening fully conscious within the higher vision is a precious gift in and of itself. There is so much joy in presenting this gift to the world free of martyrdom, which is the reward of the visionary. The destiny of the very world that condemns the visionary today depends upon these same visions to create their future of infinite tomorrows."

Barbara

What is the foundation of the work that you do and what inspired you to do the work that you are doing?

Sharon

All of the work of Liquid Light Center in accord with the Ascended Masters is aligned with the Principles of Mastery. There are many aspects to this work and the multitude of areas within my expertise extend across a broad expanse. Some of these areas include Soul work, the balance of the Divine Masculine /Feminine energies, Spiritual Psychology, Mastery of the Creation Principles at Dimensional Levels, mastering the ego, alignment of the 4 body system, the 4 kingdoms and the 12 chakra system, Kundalini and alignment with the Cosmic Source. The work of Divine Plan is ongoing and endless and not able to be defined in a brief interview such as this.

Barbara

Do you see a difference in people's lives from what you have brought to them?

Sharon

Oh, Yes. Sometimes immediately, and sometimes years later some have shared their growth path of evolution in gratitude to the work I bring forth.

It is like planting seeds in the soil of consciousness and watching the garden blossom. It takes linear time as the process of evolution occurs to see the beauty of the blossoms in all their colorful array. When one chooses to step onto the path of Spiritual Service, it is always to follow the heart and the highest purpose, which brings a sense of fulfillment, which is incomparable to anything else. This fulfillment comes in the actual moment of the service as the channel of the Divine for when one is truly aligned with Source all needs are fulfilled in each moment. If one is watering a garden, this is being of service to the flowers. If one is nurturing another with guidance, this is being of service to the other.

Barbara

What books have you written?

Sharon

"In the Garden of the Goddess", "The Rhythm of the Cosmic Pulse" and "Architects of Light," as well as a series of channeled CD's entitled "The Temple of Thoth" and "Gathering with the Masters."

Barbara

What inspired you to write them?

Sharon

"In the Garden of the Goddess" first began as a series of poems as I was awakening to more intense alignment and balance of the Divine Feminine and the Divine Masculine. It was a while later that I was informed by the voice of the Higher Self that this would be a book. Through the process of telepathic rapport with the Higher Self, the chapter titles were given to me, and I consciously had no idea the direction of the book or what would be in the chapters. Within 12 weeks, the Higher Self dictated all of the information, and I typed it like taking dictation only it is telepathically on the internal level. However it differs from taking dictation, because it was a process of also integrating the information as a co-creation between my conscious mind and the Higher Consciousness. It was not even channeled linearly. None of the books are. With all 3 books, I was informed by the Higher Self that a book will be written, and I am given the book title first. Then I am given the chapter titles, and I simply allow the channeled information to come through. All of the books, classes and channeled sessions occur in this manner, as I do not prepare anything in advance except perhaps some graphics if needed. This telepathic rapport is the alignment with the Higher Self to bring forth that of the Highest Purpose at any moment.

Barbara

If you could bring one message to people to help them, what would it be?

Sharon

At this point of focus of evolution, I would say the empowerment that is Mastery for this empowerment is the ultimate freedom from all perceived limitations. At another point in the evolution process of humanity, I might respond differently.

Barbara

Are there any areas of life where you would like to join forces with others to make a difference?

Sharon

To awaken to the Higher Self is to align with all Selves. Aligning with the many levels of the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Ascended Masters in implementing Divine Plan as a World Server is my path. Does this make a difference? I would have to answer--absolutely yes. It has in my own life, so therefore, it does in all of life, and there are many people who have communicated to me that this work has made a difference in their life. There is no separation from any aspect of consciousness. However, I do not fall prey to any notion of having a savior complex. On the one hand, I am aware of the impact that every thought and emotion has on all levels of life. On the other hand I am aware that it is not my sole responsibility to awaken the world from its sleep. Each individual must empower themselves to awaken. I am simply a guide, a Way Shower on my own path of Mastery. Divine Patience in knowing that the world of humanity and all sentient beings will awaken in their own rhythm is to release the world from any expectations that it must comply to any preconceived notions at the ego level. Anyone who expects everyone to awaken instantly at a set date or time is sure to set themselves up for disappointment and discouragement along the spiritual path for that is an imposition upon another individual's free will. However, to release the world of humanity from all perceptions of limitation is to hold the highest visionary ideals of the unfolding of Divine Love throughout the eternity of the creation process. Expression of Divine Love through the multi-dimensional fields of creation has its own rhythm that the ego has no ability to comprehend for the ego is attached to the limitations of a linear experience, whereas the Higher Self simply IS the all of exponential expansion evermore.

Barbara

If you could be remembered for just one thing, what would that be?

Sharon

I would have difficulty in answering a question phrased in this manner. The phrasing makes reference to a past locked in memory and future projection rather than the ever-present conscious "Now." From the perspective of Mastery, I would respond to this question by describing that this personality name I use is a vibration, and this body I use is a vibration. These vibrations will shift and change, and are ever evolving to more refined vibrations as the Conscious Mind aligns with and integrates the Higher Consciousness. I would simply ask in return, how could it be that one aspect of this ever shifting resonant vibration be deemed more important to stand out in the evolution of the Soul that takes eternity to Spiritually express its infinity?

Namaste,

Sharon Shane
